John Nicholson thanked the Town for the demolition permit for the old gas station on Somerset Avenue. The building will be turned into an antique shop. He thanked the fire department for their 100 years of service. He asked President Hayward if he could ask Commissioner Frederick to resign his position due to all the bad publicity about Commission Frederick had been receiving.

John Alder thanked the fire department and also said he was disappointed Commissioner Frederick did not attend the meeting so he could hear the various citizens' concerns regarding the recent events about him.

X. Commissioners Comments

Vice President Gardner thanked Code Compliance/Public Works Director Tracy Grangier for all her hard work on Street Sweep, although he wished it wasn't necessary to even do a street clean up. He wished everyone would take pride in the community and pick up after themselves. He congratulated Lt. Taylor for his commendation.

Commissioner Hall thanked the fire department and all the people attending the meeting. He wished there would be that many and even more at every meeting.

Commissioner Williams thanked the fire department, and Gail from the library for her work. He read a list of events to take place.

President Hayward thanked the UMES students who participated in Street Sweep. He also wished no one would have to pick up litter and said the streets they worked on looked good.
